A Redondo Beach resident was confronted in her residence in the 2000 block of Vanderbilt Lane this afternoon by a man armed with a handgun. The armed suspect demanded car keys from the resident to cars parked in the resident's garage. The resident looked for the car keys, and when she was not able to locate them quick enough, the suspect left her residence. The resident was not injured, and the suspect left the residence without taking any items. The resident called 9-1-1 and police searched the area for the suspect, but were not able to find the suspect.

The suspect was described by the resident as a Male Hispanic, about 20 to 30 years old, about 5-09 and 165 pounds. The suspect had a shaved head, and was wearing a blue LA Dodgers T-Shirt and blue "True Religion" jeans.

The robbery is under investigation by Redondo Beach Police Department Investigations Bureau. Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Redondo Beach Police Department Investigations Unit at 310-379-2477 extension 2714.
