PRESS RELEASE

Subject : 16 Year Old Boy Killed in Redondo Beach

Contact : Sergeant Phil Keenan

A 16 year-old boy died today after being struck by a motorcycle on Wednesday Night, at 7:40 PM.

The 16 year-old was struck by a motorcyclist as he tried to cross the street at Aviation Blvd and Huntington Ln. The boy was with other friends when he decided to run across Aviation Blvd. The boy did not see a motorcycle, ridden by a 30 year-old Claremont man, south on Aviation. The motorcycle struck the boy and threw him 30 feet. The motorcyclist was also injured. The boy suffered a severe head injury and he was transported to Harbor General Hospital. The motorcyclist was also transported to HGH, where his injuries were considered non life threatening.

This morning the 16 year-old passed away due to his injuries. The family was at his side. The collision is being investigated by the Redondo Beach Police Dept. Traffic Unit. No charges have been filed. For further information contact Sergeant Mike Adye, RBPD Traffic Unit, (310) 379-2477.
