PRESS RELEASE

Subject : 9-11 Tribute Memorial To Be Dedicated

Contact : Sergeant Phil Keenan

The 9-11 Tribute memorial will be dedicated at a ceremony on Saturday September 13, 2008, at the Redondo Beach Civic Center, 415 Diamond Street, Redondo Beach. The 9-11 Tribute is a project of the Leadership Redondo Class of 2007 in conjunction with the City of Redondo Beach, and with financial and other support from residents, businesses, and community organizations. The dedication ceremony will start at 10:00 AM and is expected to last approximately 90 minutes. The public is invited and encouraged to attend.

The dedication and memorial ceremony will feature guests from the New York Fire and Police Departments and a Police Honor Guard. The featured guest speaker will be Bob Senn retired firefighter from FDNY, and a survivor of both Tower collapses. Also in attendance will be the Los Angeles Police Dept. Emerald Society Pipe and Drum Band, and local police and fire departments, along with local City dignitaries. Estimates are that approximately 500 people will be in attendance. The 9-11 Tribute features a piece of steel beam from the World Trade Center that is going to be placed on permanent display at the Civic Center.

A dedicated press area has been set aside. For inquires about press logistics Sergeant Phil Keenan of the Redondo Beach Police Dept. can be contacted at (310) 720-2356. For questions about the event, Sergeant John Wisser of the Redondo Beach Police Dept. can be contacted at (310) 379-2477.
