Twenty-one Police Officers and canines from across California and as far away as Las Vegas, Nevada, competed in the twenty-second annual Redondo Beach Police Canine Trials on Friday, May 8th and Saturday, May 9th. A large crowd filled the bleachers at the Redondo Union High School football stadium to view the competition. The competing canine teams were rated in several categories including: Obedience, Agility, Searching, Protection and Narcotics Detection. The tremendously talented Police canines put on a spectacular show as they demonstrated their abilities throughout the competition. Spectators enjoyed the various competitions throughout the day. The twenty-second annual Redondo Beach Police Canine Trials were a great success and we are pleased to announce the winners of this year's competition.
