PRESS RELEASE

Subject: Rash of car burglaries hit Redondo Beach

Contact: Sergeant Phil Keenan

Overnight the City of Redondo Beach experienced a rash of car burglaries that occurred primarily in the south end of the city. The burglaries occurred in the night time hours and the vehicles were predominately Cadillac Escalades and Chevrolet Tahoe's. The suspects removed the center console of the dash boards that contain the GPS and radio system. Also, many of the third row seats in the vehicles were removed. The suspects entered secured parking garages and or vehicles that were parked on the street.

At the time of this release 8 burglaries were reported today. The estimated replacement cost of the console and third row seats is in excess of $6,000 dollars. The Redondo Beach Police Dept. is actively investigating these crimes and coordinating with other South Bay agencies that have also experienced similar thefts recently. The Police Dept. is asking for the public's help in finding the suspects, or anyone who saw something suspicious on Tuesday night Wednesday morning is encouraged to call. For further information contact Detective Sergeant Shawn Freeman, (310) 379-2477.
