UPDATE – Suspect Arrested –

Late in the evening of Tuesday, February 28, 2012 the Redondo Beach Police Department developed information that the suspect being sought in connection with this double homicide (Jonathan Chacon) may have fled into Mexico. Detectives worked through the night in conjunction with Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and Mexican authorities to locate Chacon. Chacon was located at a Hotel in Rosarito Beach, Baja California early this morning (Thursday, February 29, 2012) and detained by Mexican authorities. Chacon has been transferred back to the United States and is currently in the custody of the Redondo Beach Police Department.

The vehicle that Chacon was believed to be driving has still not been located. If this vehicle is located please contact police immediately.

On February 28, 2012 at approximately 10:02 AM, the Redondo Beach Police Department received an emergency call to the dispatch center from a female who discovered two deceased females at 1903 Rockefeller Lane. Officers responded to the location and discovered two deceased females. Redondo Beach Police Department suspects foul play and is investigating this incident as a double homicide. The Redondo Beach Police Department is actively seeking the boyfriend of one of the victims as a person of interest in this case. The boyfriend is identified as Jonathan Scott Chacon, 23, of Redondo Beach. Jonathan Scott Chacon is believed to be driving a 1996 Black Ford Mustang Convertible, California License plate 6CQF458. The vehicle has rear collision damage and tears in the convertible top. Jonathan Scott Chacon is considered armed and dangerous. The Redondo Beach Police Department is advising the general public to not take action if they encounter Jonathan Scott Chacon and to please call 9-1-1. If anyone has information about Jonathan Scott Chacon or his whereabouts to please call the Redondo Beach Police Department tip line at (310) 937-6685
