FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Redondo Beach Public Safety Fair and Police Department Open House

Redondo Beach Police Chief Joseph Leonardi has announced that on Sunday, October 7, 2012, the Redondo Beach Police Department will host the 17th annual Community Safety Fair and Police Department Open House at the Civic Center and Police Facility. Activities begin at 10:00 AM and conclude at 3:00 PM. The event will feature live demonstrations by K-9, motorcycle and S.W.A.T. units; displays of police equipment and fire apparatus; safety and crime prevention exhibits; tours of the police station; free gun locks and child I.D. kits; entertainment and free food.

As part of the Community Oriented Policing philosophy, the Police Department's doors will be open to the public. Everybody is invited to tour the police facility and enjoy the activities at the Safety Fair. There will be numerous photo opportunities for children and adults.

The activities will be fun and educational. There will be a mini Fun-Fest sponsored by the City of Redondo Beach Recreation Department. The Fire Department and components of the Police Department such as K-9, CSI and SWAT will present demonstrations and exhibits. Personal safety and crime prevention information will be on display. The Safety Fair is the "kick-off" event for Fire Prevention Week and Crime Prevention Month.

The Civic Center and Police Department are located at the corner of North Pacific Coast Highway and Diamond Street in Redondo Beach.
