The Redondo Beach Police Department is seeking the public's help in the identification and return of an elderly Chinese female to her family.

On June 30, 2016 at approximately 6:50 AM, Redondo Beach Police Department were dispatched to a call of a disoriented elderly Chinese female walking in the 400 block of Miramar Drive in South Redondo Beach.

Redondo Beach Police officers contacted the elderly female and determined that she speaks Chinese Cantonese. However, she was not able to communicate with the Chinese Cantonese translator regarding her address, and the possible name obtained is "Suiwah Lee (Li)" the spelling of her name is not certain. Redondo Beach Police have not been able to obtain any information that would help in returning her to her family and/or caregivers. She has no identification with her or any other identifiers that would assist in returning her to her family.

The Los Angeles County Department of Adult Protective Services has been notified. Local Hospitals have also been contacted along with local senior housing services in the area.

The female is well dressed, wearing a long sleeve button up grey striped shirt, black pants, grey shoes, and a black hair band. She is about 80-90 years old, grey hair, about 4'7", thin build and walks with a slight hunch.

Anyone with information to her identity to help return her to her family is asked to call the Redondo Beach Police Department.
