FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject : Stabbing Victim

Contact : Sergeant John Wisser, Redondo Beach Police Department 379-2477 Ext. 2340

REDONDO BEACH, Calif.: January 4, 2006

In the early evening hours five friends were strolling along the beach next to the bicycle path when they were confronted by three males walking the opposite direction on the bicycle path. The group of three yelled out a gang slogan then charged the group of five, who scattered in various directions when one of the three brandished a knife. One of the five who tried to flee unfortunately was punched, then stabbed numerous times.

The fifteen year old victim was treated at the scene by paramedics from the Redondo Beach Fire Department and then transported to Harbor General Hospital. His injuries were classified as not life threatening.

Information and inquiries should be directed to Detective Kochhiem and Detective Sturgeon at (310) 379-2477, ext. 2714.
