Redondo Beach Police conducted a series of Minor Decoy operations in the City of Redondo Beach on Saturday, June 17, 2006 and Friday, June 23, 2006. The operations were part of a series of monthly operations being conducted in accordance with a Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control grant that was awarded to the City of Redondo Beach. The purpose of the grant is to reduce underage drinking through enforcement and educational programs.

These operations were one of several large scale operations that have been conducted over the course of the past several months. A total of twenty-six different establishments were visited during the operations. Multiple minor decoys attempted to purchase alcohol from a total of twelve different on-sale establishments and fourteen different off sale establishments in Redondo Beach. Four of the on-sale locations and one of the off-sale locations completed the sale. Minor decoys also solicited sixty adults at thirteen different establishments to purchase alcohol. Ten adults took money from the minor, purchased alcohol and provided the alcohol to the minor. Redondo Beach Police cited a total of fifteen adults related to the violations.
